

HIGHLAND CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

June 2018

Highland Church reaches out in the name of Jesus Christ building disciples with vision for ministry.

In the comic strip, Calvin and Hobbes, Calvin is at school, and his teacher is attempting to teach the class. She finishes the lesson, "If there are no questions, we will move on to the next chapter."

"I have a question."

"Certainly Calvin, what is it?"

"What's the point of human existence?"

"I meant any questions about the subject at hand."

"Oh", said Calvin frankly, "I'd like to have the issue resolved before I expend any more energy on this." (From Calvin and Hobbes, March 3, 1992)

Where do you use energy? What is your focus? Is the Cross central to your vision?

We learn in 1 John 2:15-17 that putting focus on the things of the world is not central to our theology. Ways and pleasures of the world are used by the devil to lure us away from God's agenda, which is where we as disciples should spend our energy! "For everything in the world – the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life – comes not from the Father but from the world."

In John Phillip's commentary he explains how we have three sources leading toward evil and away from communion with God: The Wicked One (Satan), the flesh, and the world. The love of the world is, indeed, a very great peril and creates a vicious cycle—a love of the world begets a love of the things of the world, and a love of the things of the world begets an increasing love of the world. The word used here for "world" is kosmos, which has a considerable range of meaning in the New Testament. It can signify, for instance, the world as created by God, a place of great beauty and order. It can also mean the world of human beings for whom Christ died. But as John the Apostle uses the word here, the world represents human life and society with God left out, human life and society as organized by Satan and in whose lap it lies. The world is the Devil's lair for sinners and his lure for saints. Thus, the world is one of God's enemies—it murdered His Son, and it hates His people.

As summer approaches and we enjoy spending leisure time with our friends and families, remember God's agenda. We are a holy people, fearfully and wonderfully made with a responsibility to go into world prepared to share the Gospel!

CPWM

CPWM met Monday, May 7th in the Fellowship Hall. Elaine Overton and Sidney Milton shared the highlights of the Regional Meeting held April 21st at Oakland CP Church. It was agreed by consensus to honor our 2018 graduates: Jenny Roberts, Jamie Gamble, Addison Dumes, Alec Golightly, and Ben Hall during Sunday morning worship May 27th. It is time for another fun and entertaining Lip Synch night. We have scheduled our Stott Wallace Missionary Fundraiser and fish fry for Sunday evening, August 5th. It is time for all our Sunday School classes and other groups to decide on an act. Jeff Parker will be cooking our fish. What a fun time we had last year! Be making your plans!

Our next meeting will be held Monday, June 4th at 10:00 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Please join us!
